

Autism Intervention for the iEra: The Socially Speaking™ Program

Practical Social Communication Strategies for Integrating Toys and Tech in Treatment

By Penina Rybak MA/CCC-SLP, TSHH

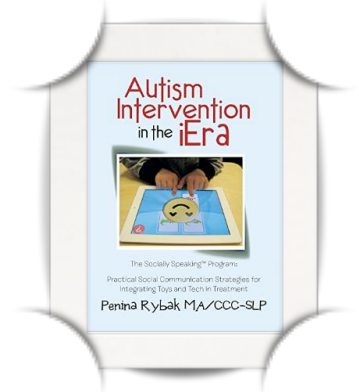

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Dedication and Acknowledgments

Preface

Socially Speaking™ Part I- Fostering Compliance Bridging the Gap Between Readiness to Learn and Actual Performance

Understanding the Roots of the Problematic Behaviors and How to Counteract Them: Disorientation to Person/Place/Time and Clinical Implications

Chapter 1

Disorientation to Person

Socially Speaking™ Social Skills Curriculum: Level I

Body Awareness: Address Rapport and Who? Questions

Chapter 2

Disorientation to Place:

Socially Speaking™ Social Skills Curriculum: Level II

Expressing Feelings: What? and Why? Questions Re: Object Function

Chapter 3:

Disorientation to Time:

Socially Speaking™ Social Skills Curriculum: Level III

Problem Solving: When? questions Re: Past/Present/Future Events, Sequencing Events, and/or Expressing Wants/Needs More Age Appropriately

Chapter 4

Fostering Compliance:

Socially Speaking™ Social Skills Curriculum: Train Tracks #1

Behavior Management 101: Setting the Stage for Learning Better Orientation to Person/Place/Time

Chapter 5

Fostering Development of Humor:

Socially Speaking™ Social Skills Curriculum: Train Tracks #2

The Use of Humor: Demonstrating Orientation to Person/Place/Time

Socially Speaking™ Part II-Implementation

Methodically Determining Starting Points for Remediation: Collaborative Team Evaluations and Goal Planning For Specific Social Skills Goals

Chapter 6:

Assessment Part 1

The Socially Speaking™ Social Skills Assessment Protocol

Chapter 7:

Assessment Part 2

A Closer Look at Executive Functioning: Evaluation and Treatment Within a Social Communication Framework

Chapter 8:

Treatment Part 1

The Importance of Play: The Precursor to Social Communication and Pre-Literacy Development

Chapter 9:

Treatment Part 2

Social Skills Kits for Staged “Teachable Moments”

Chapter 10:

Toilet Training:

What You Need to Know About Children with Autism

Chapter 11:

Digital Citizenship in the iEra

What You Need to Know About iPads, Ed-Tech, and Best Practices for Both

Chapter 12

Conclusion

Final Words and Reproducible Forms

Amazon: <http://amzn.to/1QzHjNL>

