

Top 3 Presentation Tools and Apps for Teachers

www.educatorstechnology.com

Web tools	Cost & Registration	What the tool provides	Sharing options
Haiku Deck Web link www.haikudeck.com iPad Link http://goo.gl/Ed20PX	Free Web based Requires registration	Provides CC licensed images Provides bar graphs, stat and pie charts Add public notes to your decks Provides ready made themes Animations and transitions Insert images from your computer, Dropbox, Flickr, Picasa, Drive and social media sites	Export to PowerPoint or Keynote Download as PDF Share on social networks Hook to a projector or TV Embed in a blog or website Stream to Apple TV
Prezi Web link www.prezi.com iPad Link http://goo.gl/CtlupW	Free (all presentations are public) Pro version with more features Special discount for teachers and students Web based	Ready made templates insert layouts, shapes, text, font Add URLs to your Prezi Import PPT files Add sound to your Prezi Animations and transitions Collaborate and co-create prezis	Save as a PDF Embed link Direct link Email
Google Slides Web link http://goo.gl/XPpNOA iPad Link http://goo.gl/Qt46c6	Free Web based Requires a Google Account	Pre-designed templates Insert images, videos, URLs, text, shapes, lines, Word Art Integrated with your Google Drive Add comments to your slides	Direct link Embed link Email Download as PDF, JPEG, PNG, or PPT.

By Med Kharbach

<http://www.educatorstechnology.com/2014/12/the-best-presentation-tools-and-apps-for-teachers.html>